

I was involved in radio as the president of radio station KSGN, Riverside, California, for many years. I know that telemarketing calls from radio stations are no different from other telemarketers. We learned that our listeners didn't want them. And I don't want them. Please do away with the exemption for prerecorded telemarketing calls from radio and TV stations.